Nuremberg Diary by Gustave Mark Gilbert

Gustave Mark Gilbert

In August 1945 nice Britain, France, the USSR, and the USA proven a tribunal at Nuremberg to attempt army and civilian leaders of the Nazi regime. G. M. Gilbert, the criminal psychologist, had an unmatched firsthand chance to Nuremberg Diary observe and query the Nazi battle criminals. With clinical dispassion he inspired Göering, Speer, Hess, Ribbentrop, Frank, Jodl, Keitel, Streicher, and the others to bare their Nuremberg Diary innermost thoughts. within the technique Gilbert uncovered what inspired them to create the distorted Aryan utopia and the nightmarish worlds of Auschwitz, Dachau, and Buchenwald. listed here are their daily reactions to the trial proceedings; their off-the-record evaluations of Hitler, the 3rd Reich, and every other; their perspectives on slave labor, loss of life camps, and the Jews; their testimony, feuds, and determined maneuverings to dissociate themselves from the 3rd Reich's defeat and Nazi guilt. Dr. Gilbert's thorough wisdom of German, intentionally casual approach, and entire freedom of entry constantly to the defendants provide his spellbinding, chilling learn an intimacy and perception that is still unequaled.

Lo psicologo americano G.M. Gilbert seguì i 23 grandi criminali di guerra nazisti durante il processo di Norimberga. Non erano degli stupidi. A eccezione di Streicher (che risultò avere un QI di 106) i try out attitudinali rivelarono un'intelligenza superiore alla media (Schacht 143, Seyss-Inquart 141, Goering 138, Doenitz 138, ecc.). intelligenti e malvagi, verrebbe da dire. Gilbert conversò con loro in cella, li ascoltò nei corridoi, seguì gli scambi di battute fra gli imputati, li osservò e li studiò consistent with capire come fosse stato possibile, consistent with questi uomini, aderire al movimento nazista e compiere i crimini di cui erano accusati. Annotò tutto in un diario a partire dal 20 ottobre 1945, giorno in cui giunse a Norimberga according to occuparsi degli imputati. Nel diario sono riportate le conversazioni confidenziali, le dichiarazioni di pentimento (reali o fittizie), le reazioni durante le udienze e dopo los angeles sentenza. Sono omuncoli impauriti, alcuni ostili, altri cinici, altri ancora piagnucolosi, qualcuno deride e accusa altri incriminati, qualcun altro legge l. a. Bibbia e prega. Tutti stupiti d'essere considerati criminali. Nessuno capace di assumersi los angeles responsabilità storica dei propri atti. Questi miserevoli giganti del Reich, dopo aver preso parte all'indicibile, si affannano nel tentativo di salvarsi los angeles vita. Lo fanno in modo meschino, patetico, grottesco, teatrale. Un carosello disgustoso. Goering nega qualsiasi responsabilità morale e legale in keeping with i crimini commessi dai nazisti. Robberntrop dichiara che l'imputazione è diretta contro le persone sbagliate. Hesse cube di non riuscire a ricordare. Kaltenbrunner afferma di non ritenersi colpevole di alcun crimine di guerra, ma d'aver fatto soltanto il suo dovere. Rosenberg sostiene che l. a. natura del movimento antisemita period puramente difensiva. Schacht non capisce perché lo accusano. Streicher dichiara che il processo è un trionfo dell'ebraismo mondiale. Keitel afferma che in keeping with un soldato, gli ordini sono ordini. Doenitz sostiene che le accuse, che non lo toccano, sono un esempio del tipico umorismo americano. Quattro i capi d'accusa: 1) Cospirazione allo scopo di commettere i crimini di cui agli altri capi d'accusa 2) Crimini contro los angeles pace 3) Crimini di guerra 4) Crimini contro l'umanità "... l. a. storia saprà che è stata loro concessa los angeles facoltà di dire qualsiasi cosa. Hanno subito un processo che essi, nei giorni del loro splendore, non hanno mai garantito a nessun uomo..."12 dei principali imputati verranno condannati a morte in step with impiccagione, fra cui Goering che però si suiciderà prima dell'esecuzione. 7 condannati a pene detentive. three assolti. Ley si suiciderà prima che inizi il processo.È un libro difficile da leggere. Fa male. Toglie il respiro. Los Angeles domanda che si presenta ininterrottamente è "Perché?".Eppure erano "uomini" anche loro. Forse. O forse no.
