The Classical Heritage in Islam by Franz Rosenthal

Franz Rosenthal

The effect of classical antiquity at the non secular disciplines, theology, mysticism and legislation of Islam can't be overestimated. This paintings demonstrates the importance of the classical history via drawing jointly a good variety of literary renderings, paraphrases, commentaries and imitations, in addition to self sufficient Islamic elaborations. Professor Rosenthal's assortment comprises the paintings of early The Classical Heritage in Islam authors, authors of the Golden Age and later writers who imitated their works. The Classical history in Islam unearths that the Muslim adoption of and dependence on classical texts used to be no longer blind imitation or an The Classical Heritage in Islam off-the-cuff compounding of traditions, yet quite an unique synthesis and consequently a special achievement.
