The Man Who Was Afraid. (Foma Gordyeff)

Maxim Gorky

vintage novel. in response to Wikipedia: "Aleksey Maksimovich Peshkov ( 1868 – 1936), larger often called Maxim Gorky (Максим Горький), was once a Soviet/Russian author, a founding father of the socialist realism literary procedure and a political activist. From 1906 to 1913 and from 1921 to 1929 he lived abroad, generally in Capri, Italy; after his go back to the Soviet Union he approved the cultural regulations of the time, even though he used to be no longer authorized to go away the country."

I truly did not just like the publication although i have learn it to the end. I felt no pity for Foma's destiny or his internal innovations and sufferings. Well, he did not proceed his father's enterprise 'cause he felt loathing to the area of investors and theirs means of life. yet he did not do something for himself justifying he was once The Man Who Was Afraid. (Foma Gordyeff) misplaced and did not comprehend what to do. For me he was once doomed from the fist days of college for his misfortune: absolute absence of willingness to do anything. And this is often positioned as seek OF the reassurance and which means OF LIFE. Very tragical, haha.
