The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam by Omar Khayyám

Omar Khayyám

The rubaiyat are a chain of poems or 'stanzas' through the well-known twelfth century Persian astronomer and philosopher. The Rubáiyát of Omar Khayyám (Persian: رُبَايَاتِ اَومارِ خَیْیام) is the identify that Edward FitzGerald gave to his translation of a variety of poems, initially written in Persian and numbering a couple of thousand, attributed to Omar Khayyám (1048–1131), a Persian poet, mathematician and astronomer. A ruba'i is a two-line stanza with components (or hemistichs) in keeping with line, for this reason the observe rubáiyát (derived from the Arabic language root for "four"), that means "quatrains".
