The Trial of the Gospel: An Apologetic Reading of Luke's Trial Narratives

Alexandru Neagoe

Alexandru Neagoe examines Luke's writings as an apologetic work, by means of concentrating on the components of Luke's tale the place the apologetic overtones look such a lot prominent--the trial narratives. In interpreting the rigors of all significant Lukan characters--Jesus, Peter, Stephen, and Paul, Neagoe argues that the narratives are most sensible understood while seen as a part of Luke's apologia seasoned evangelio, a objective that is in response to the author's declared objective to provide his readers "assurance" in regards to the "matters" within which they'd been recommended (Luke 1:4).
